

Tuesday is

PRICES
DAY

Is Luncheon Meat already cooked?

One of the first things you need to know about luncheon meats is that these are almost always already cooked. Unless otherwise stated, most luncheon meats are vacuum-cooked in its can and are definitely ready-to-eat once cooled. That's why it's so important to avoid buying canned food that looks like it has been dented, rusted, corroded, or compromised its seal (yumm).

Luncheon Meat is a price controlled good and retails as follows:

Item	Size	Price
Dak Pork Luncheon Meat	200g	$6.06
Tulip Chicken Luncheon Meat	200g	$6.23
Dany Chicken Luncheon Meat	200g	$6.59
Three Men Chicken & Beef Luncheon Meat	200g	$6.59
Dak Pork Luncheon Meat	340g	$9.15
Dany Chicken Luncheon Meat	340g	$9.31
Three Men Chicken & Beef Luncheon Meat	340g	$9.31
Tulip Chicken Luncheon Meat	340g	$9.37
Picnic Chicken Luncheon Meat	340g	$10.51

For more information on price control goods contact
Prices and Consumer Affairs Division
462-0834 | Hotline/whatsaap 464-4238
Like us on Facebook and follow us on Instagram.